CITIES OF LIGHT

What is CITIES OF LIGHT?

You know the musical Cabaret? Cities of Light will give you the Jewish story. The show takes you back to the brave and brilliant cabarets of 1920s Berlin, Paris, Yiddish Warsaw, and Tel Aviv before the founding of the State. Katarina Waldorf is your guide; she's a funny and fierce cabaret performer who flees Berlin towards places where Judaism and creativity can still thrive. Through her journey, you will come to celebrate an entire community of almost forgotten Jewish artists.

Cities of Light has been presented at prominent theater venues in Paris, Warsaw, London, Jerusalem, Los Angeles, Montreal, Chicago, Miami, and New York City, and at synagogues, cabarets and JCC's across the US. Anne Quesemand, Artistic Director of La Vieille Grille Theater in Paris, exclaims, "As a lover of theater and a Jew, I have never seen anything quite like Cities. The songs are fabulous; this show is gold!"

Who is Rebecca?

Rebecca is an acclaimed playwright, actress, singer, and educator who specializes in creating vital and imaginative new works of Jewish theater and performance. An ordained cantor, she now devotes herself full-time to touring and teaching. Her shows, concerts, workshops, and artist-in-residencies have been enjoyed by Jewish communities across the US and Europe, by university students and kids at camp, and by numerous theater audiences. Rebecca also works as experiential educator at The ARK, Chicago's oldest Jewish poverty relief organization.
